Communication Tips for Law Enforcement

- Do not shine your flashlight at Deaf and Hard of Hearing person's face
- Make eye contact when you speak
- Speak at normal pace
- Do not cover your mouth
- Not every Deaf and Hard of Hearing person knows how to read lips
- Ask the person's preference of communication
- Make sure you have light, so you are visible

If arrested or asked to come in for questioning:

- A licensed sign language interpreter must be provided if requested.
- A Communication Access Real-Time Translation (CART) must be provided if requested.
- Ask the person what they prefer if they have alternative method.
